J. F. McCARTNEY PROMINENT MAN OF METROPOLIS

Banker and Public Spirited
Citizen Dies at Hot Springs, Ark.

Owned Banks in Metropolis,
Brookport and Golconda.

LEADER IN ALL MOVEMENTS

Metropolis, Ill., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Capt. J. F. McCartney, 75 years old, president of the National State Bank of Metropolis, the Bank of Brookport and a bank at Golconda, and one of the richest and best known men of southern Illinois, died last night at 8 o'clock at Hot Springs, Ark., after an illness of only three weeks. The day Captain McCartney left Metropolis he was assisting in the preparations for the monument unveiling at Fort Massac.

He was the most active and hardest working man in this section, a leader in every public movement and an ardent churchman. He was one of the strongest members of the Christian church here, and a prohibitionist. He was a leader in the local option campaign and ran for congress several times on the prohibition ticket. He was at one time state attorney.

Captain McCartney was a native of Scotland, but was brought to this country in his infancy by his parents. He was captain in an Illinois regiment during the Civil war and served with distinction.

Captain McCartney's death removes one of the men, who have toiled for the upbuilding of Metropolis and the betterment of the community. He had always been public spirited in the broadest sense of the word, and while he prospered himself, he gave to the community more than he reserved for himself. His real estate holdings in the city and county are extensive. Besides the banks he owns the State hotel, the opera house and several other buildings.

Captain McCartney was a Mason, but most of his time was divided between his business, the church and public works, and while remaining loyal to the order, he was not a lodge worker.

His body will be brought back at once from Hot Springs and the funeral will take place probably Sunday.

Besides his devoted wife, Captain McCartney is survived by the following children: Mrs. F. A. Trousdale, wife of the editor of the Herald; Miss Hope McCartney; Mrs. Doris Plamper and Mrs. John N. Weaver, of Metropolis; Mrs. H. S. Hollifield, wife of the cashier of the Brookport bank; Prof. Marcus McCartney, superintendent of the Bloomfield, Mo., schools; Prof. Frank McCartney, superintendent of the Jennings, La., schools; Mrs. Charles M. Potts and Mrs. Elizabeth Stroud, of Seattle, Wash. He is survived by one sister at Washington.

CHARGE IS REDUCED TO ONE OF PETIT LARCENY.

As the suit case, alleged to have been stolen from the Union station Saturday night by Skinner Cook, was of less value than $20 the charge was reduced to petit larceny this morning in police court. Cook was held to the grand jury and his bond was fixed at $100. Cook alleged that he made a mistake in taking the suit case.

Hughes Expenses $360.
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Governor Hughes filed his certificate of election expenses with the secretary of the state, giving his total expenditures as $369.

Former Sheriff of Davidson Co. Arrested on Charge of Abetting in Murder of Ex-Senator Carmack

Young Cooper Will Set Up
Plea of Self Defense, Accusing Dead Man of Firing First Shot When They Met.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—That the Coopers, father and son, will plead self-defense at their trial for the killing of former Senator Carmack on the streets here Monday is the generally accepted theory. The defense will, it is claimed, attempt to prove further that the Coopers were not seeking a meeting with Carmack, but that when they saw him, Colonel Cooper started to cross the street to remonstrate with him regarding the use of Cooper's pistol editorially; that Carmack drew a pistol as he saw Cooper coming, and that when young Cooper, who was following behind his father, ran in advance of him; that Carmack then shot twice, wounding young Cooper; that then, the latter began to shoot. It is said by friends of young Cooper that his chin is powder-burned from the shots from Carmack's revolver.

The wounded man is resting easy at the hospital, where he is under arrest, guarded by county officers. The elder Cooper is still in the county jail and as yet no move has been made toward an application for bail. The grand jury will begin an investigation of the killing.

It is learned that in all probability Albert Stockell, assistant attorney-general for the county, will not serve in that capacity during the grand jury investigation for the reason that he is a nephew of Col. Duncanson B. Cooper and a cousin of Robin Cooper, who killed Senator Carmack. It is not known at this time who will represent the state with Attorney General McMinn. It is said that many distinguished lawyers have volunteered to go into the case on each side.

One of the subjects of conversation on the streets today in connection with the case is the alleged presence of ex-Sheriff John D. Sharpe at or near the scene of the killing. The ex-sheriff was seen in the Arcade with the two Coopers a few moments before the killing.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—A warrant was issued for former Sheriff John Sharpe, charging he abetted Carmack's murder. It is charged Sharpe was with the Coopers two minutes before the shooting.

Carmack's friends insist that Sharpe knew of the intention to kill Carmack and didn't try to stop it. The grand jury is continuing its investigation. Robin Cooper has not recovered from his wounds.

CHINAMEN DROWN BEING SMUGGLED IN FROM CANADA

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Six Chinamen were drowned crossing Lake Erie in an attempt to smuggle themselves into the United States. Two boats were caught in a storm and upset. Four survivors were arrested and will be returned to Canada.

HUNTERS PREPARING TO GO AFTER BIRDS WHEN SEASON OPENS UP NEXT WEEK

Two more days and the woods and fields of Kentucky will be thick with hunters and sportsmen, and the various hotels, restaurants and cafes will include "quail on toast" in their menu. Sunday will be the opening day, and notwithstanding it is the Sabbath day some few sportsmen will be out with gun and dog.

The game laws of Kentucky prohibit the killing of partridges and quail, except during the period between November 15 and January 1. The law is plain on that score, and all of the true sportsmen and sporting clubs over the state have endeavored to see that the statute is enforced. Several of the hotels and restaurants in the cities in the state have been fined for having the game in their possession out of season. Possession itself is a violation of the law.

There will be plenty of hunting parties during the hunting season, and Paducah sportsmen expect to have a gay time.

MAY BE SPECIAL TERM.

Efforts will be made to have the Henry Bennett suit against the alleged night rider organization tried at a special term of the federal court. So few of the 89 defendants have been found that the suit cannot be tried at the term of federal court next week. State Senator Wheeler Campbell, of Louisville, one of the attorneys for Bennett, was in the city today, and he stated that he thought efforts would be made by the plaintiff to have Judge Walter Evans try the suit at a special term some time early in the new year. The power of calling a special term for the case rests solely with Judge Evans, but the efforts will be made to have it tried before the next spring term.

KENTUCKIANS IN RANKIN MURDER AT REELFOOT LAKE

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 12.—That five Kentuckians were implicated in the murder of Captain Rankin and the attempted murder of Colonel Taylor was sworn to by two or three of the state witnesses, whose names are withheld from publication for obvious reasons. These witnesses told how the Kentuckians rode across the state line and joined a party of sixteen night riders, all of whom live in the neighborhood of Clayton, a small town in the hills about ten miles from Walnutlog.

These sixteen men comprised a portion of the "upper gang" and their meeting place was at Long Bridge, across Reelfoot lake. On the night of the Walnutlog raid this party, the party of five from Kentucky and the members of the "lower gang," who rounded out the entire raiding squad to a total of thirty-five or forty, met at Long Bridge, and started upon their mission of crime and bloodshed.

This evidence was entirely corroborative of the full confessions made by T. Burton, Frank Feltinger and several others, and was of the utmost importance to the state's case. It is expected that additional details of the raid on the night of October 19 will be received tomorrow and it is understood from reliable sources that evidence will be presented to the grand jury on the call which was issued for the raid itself.

Some of the witnesses who are slated to go before the grand jury are expected to tell of the organization of the night riders in Obion county, their secret signs and passwords and of their numerous raids prior to the final and bloody one upon Ward's hotel at Walnutlog.

One Killed, One Hurt.

Green Bay, Wis., Nov. 12.—Miss Elsie Dutton, daughter of H. E. Dutton, an official of the Green Bay and Western railroad, was killed in a collision of an automobile and a street car. Ross Handy, the chauffeur, was seriously injured.

Expresses His Delight at Hearing Good News From Paducah Church.

Presiding Elder Blackard
Mentioned For Memphis.

SESSIONS OF SECOND DAY

Covington, Tenn., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The second day's session of the Memphis conference opened at 9 a. m. Many new arrivals since yesterday are numbered. Among them are: Drs. Hammond, Campbell, Hayes and Lamar.

Last evening the church was packed to its utmost capacity to hear Dr. McMurry and Bishop Hoss at the church extension anniversary. Judge McFarland presided and Dr. Sullivan led the devotions.

The morning session was taken up in hearing reports from the pastors. Dr. Blackard made a good report from Paducah district, showing progress in every charge. Dr. G. T. Sullivan, of Broadway church, made one of the best reports ever made for this congregation.

Bishop Hoss complimented the report and said: "I am delighted with the conditions of this grand church."

Dr. Banks and others of the district made fine reports. The church throughout the conference shows much growth. Some 10,000 or 12,000 conversions and nearly as many additions to the church.

The Rev. E. B. Ramsey preached at 3 p. m. to a large audience and a general handshaking took place at the close of the service.

Two preachers have died during the year, the Revs. T. J. Newell and H. C. Gamble. Memorial services will be held next Sunday for them.

SUMMON MRS. GUNNESS.

Laporte, Ind., Nov. 12.—The defense sprung a sensational surprise in the Lamphere case by summoning Mrs. Gunness as a witness. She can't be found, but the move strengthened the belief that the woman Lamphere is accused of murdering is still alive. The defense announced it will produce a witness to tell of many night auto rides in which Mrs. Gunness figured. The police are working on a new theory. Several prominent Chicago parties figured in the wholesale murders and they expect to discover the culprits.

Jack Frost Arrives.
Jack Frost arrived in Paducah last night, and after he had unpacked his trunk the temperature ran down to 24 degrees, which is two degrees colder than it has been before this autumn. Jack Frost brought his trunk, because the weather man has assigned him to Paducah for several days, and during his presence there will be no let up in the chilly weather. Ice was plentiful in the gutters, and it reached a thickness of one-fourth of an inch. The weather man says the weather will remain clear and continued cold. According to the observation of Mr. William Borneman, official weather observer, the rainfall for the last three months was: October—.02 of an inch; September—.57 of an inch; August—4.97 inches. On August 13 the rainfall reached .38 of an inch.

Reports Heard.
Reports from the Memphis conference female institute, the general board of missions, the Sunday school editor, the general church extension secretary, the correspondence school, the publishing house, the Epworth League board, the laymen's missionary movement and the Anti-Saloon League were received and referred without reading to appropriate boards and committees.

Many Appointments.
It is too early to forecast appointments, as the bishop and his cabinet will not meet until this afternoon. Interest will center in the Memphis district, as a number of important places will probably have new men another year. There are many prominent men mentioned to succeed Rev. Dr. R. H. Mahon, as presiding elder: R. W. Hood, G. B. Bakerville, J. G. Clarke, J. W. Roberts, J. H. Blackard, Warren Brooks, W. G. Hedley and W. D. Jenkins, the conference hosts. At present it looks as if the appointments will go to either Hedley or Jenkins, with a strong probability that a dark horse, not yet named or known, may be assigned to the district.

TEACHERS' CHECKS ARE TURNED DOWN BY BANKS.

The banks have refused to pay the checks that were given the teachers by the school board at Tuesday night's session. As a result the teachers are in a quandary. The checks were marked "payable when funds are available," but as the school board has no money on deposit, the checks were turned down. It is learned that several of the teachers have joined teachers' agencies, and should the schools close some of the teachers would be ready for another position. It is also understood that one or two teachers have already been offered positions in other schools.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Postmaster General Meyer announced a postal deficit for the year of $16,900,000, the largest ever. Increase of pay voted postal employees by the last congress raised the expenses $9,000,000.

POSTPONE CASES UNTIL COURT OF APPEALS DECIDES

Prosecution and Defense Both
Are Willing to Continue
Another Term.

Proof of General Conspiracy of Night Riders

JONES BROTHERS INDICTED

(Staff Correspondent.)
Murray, Ky., Nov. 12.—The prosecution of the night rider cases in Calloway county desires to make a clean sweep when the leaders are put on trial, and for that reason consented to the continuance of the cases against Jasper Garland and Kelsie Kirk, charged with carrying the oath to Calloway county, and Nathan Cummins, set for today. The prosecution appealed from the rulings of Judge Cook, excluding evidence in the case of Jake Ellis, and until this point of law is settled, both sides desire to postpone the important case. Henry Taylor and George McClure, charged with participating in the raid on the home of Moses Thornton, may be put on trial tomorrow; but no evidence regarding the oath is to be presented, and it is a simple case of proving whether or not they were present that night.

Jones Boys Indicted.
Murray, Ky., Nov. 12.—The grand jury of Calloway county this morning returned indictments against Victor and Fred Jones, brothers, who shot and killed Will Lewis at a baptizing in the eastern part of the county last summer. It is claimed that one of the Jones boys was teasing Lewis' little brother, and that when he interfered he was shot. It is said there was trouble before. The defendants are out on $5,000 bond.

Judge Wells Has Daughter.
Murray, Ky., Nov. 12.—The stork and death both entered the home of County Judge Wells, who has been fighting the night riders. The stork brought him a little girl. About the same time his cousin, Horace Wells, died of tuberculosis.

Senator Campbell in City.
State Senator Wheeler Campbell, who removed to Louisville from Paducah this summer to practice law, arrived in the city early this morning. He came to Paducah on private business he said, and will leave early tomorrow morning for Louisville. This was Senator Campbell's first visit to his boyhood home since he removed to Louisville.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT.
Issued By Roosevelt to Offset Discussion of Dinner.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The discussion which has arisen over the dinner which President Roosevelt is to give in the white house next Tuesday to a number of labor leaders brought forth from the executive office of the president an official statement pointing out that the dinner is not an official one, and declining to discuss the omission of President Gompers, Vice President O'Connell, Secretary Morrison and Treasurer Lennan, of the American Federation of Labor, from the guest list.

GOVERNOR FOLK
RESENTS BEING
ROASTED ALIVE

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 12.—As the result of hanging and burning in effigy of Governor Folk at Richards, because he paroled Dr. J. D. Todd, sentenced to ten years for the murder of Robert Wall, it is likely the governor will unconditionally pardon Todd. Folk declared he will investigate the case and issue a pardon if justified. The governor censured Richards citizens as worse than Todd.

Receivers Named
Cleveland, O., Nov. 12.—Federal Judge Taylor appointed F. A. Scott and Warren Bicknell, receivers of the Municipal Traction company, and Cleveland Railway company as the outcome of the recent refusal of people to favor three cent fares in the referendum election. This fight is to control the properties.

BAILEY GETS NEW TRIAL ON CHARGE OF CONVERTING

Louisville, Nov. 1. (Special.)—The appellate court this morning ordered a new trial for A. Bailey, Sr., manager of the Reinecke Coal company, indicted for embezzlement. The court says there was no evidence to show he converted money to his own use and that is the only charge that can be considered in the new trial.

Farmers' Union Plans
New Orleans, Nov. 12.—The Farmers' Union convention appointed a committee of seven to confer with a similar committee of business men for the erection of warehouses, the plan for combining the 6,000 farmers' storehouses into interstate holding companies. It adopted resolutions urging farmers to cart their cotton crop 25 per cent, and raise their own food; also condemning night riders.

EXCITING DEBATE COMES TO END

With Rejection of Proposal to Send Kaiser.

Chancellor Von Buelow's Explanation and Promises Laughter at By the Socialists.

THE REICHSTAG NOW QUIET

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The most exciting debate in a long time in the reichstag was concluded with the rejection by the majority of a proposition to send an address to the emperor calling attention to the danger of his majesty's personal intervention in foreign politics. The discussion brought forth strong expressions from the representatives of most of the parties.

The displeasure of the house was concentrated principally upon Chancellor Von Buelow. Members of several of the groups refused to accept the chancellor's explanation with regard to the emperor's interview in the London Telegraph as satisfactory or as offering guarantees for the future, but when the proposition of addressing the emperor formally on the subject was put to the house, the governmental majority did not hesitate in voting against it.

Buelow listened unmoved to the personal attacks against him, only leaving the house for a short time to attend a sitting of the Prussian cabinet. It was generally expected that he would speak again, but the chancellor disappointed the members.

Baron Von Kiderlin-Waechter's defense of the foreign office was received with loudly expressed derision by the socialists.

Turkey's Finances Eased.

Budapest, Nov. 12.—Speaking in lower house of the Hungarian parliament, Premier Wokerle declared that the Austro-Hungarian government had no intention of assuming any part of the Turkish national debt in connection with the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The occupation of these provinces had greatly eased the finances of Turkey and had proved at the same time proportionately costly to the dual monarchy, he said.

The annexation had not in any way altered Turkey's financial position. The premier sounded a warning note regarding the bellicose attitude of Serbia. He said he hoped that these threats of war would cease before Austria-Hungary was compelled to use the resources at her command to force a cessation of preparations for hostilities.

New Rap at Kaiser.

The Hague, Nov. 12.—The "Vaderland" publishes extracts from the memoirs of an unnamed diplomat who asserts that during the Russo-Japanese war the German emperor wrote Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, threatening the occupation of Dutch ports unless Holland immediately put herself in a state of defense against Great Britain.

News of Theatres

At The Kentucky.
Tonight—"Under the Mistletoe Bough"—Benefit Woman's club.
Friday night—Black Patti's Troubadours.
Coming—Al G. Field's minstrels.

Black Patti.

Tomorrow night Black Patti's Troubadours, the famous colored organization, which Sisteretta Jones, "the Black Patti," has headed for 13 years, will be seen at the Kentucky theater. This organization always carries the leading colored singers, dancers and comedians, and this year, as usual, promises to have an entirely new production from beginning to end.

Al G. Field's Minstrel.

The Austin (Tex.) Statesman, of November 9, says editorially under the caption "The Growth of Minstrelsy":

"For many years, in fact up to within ten or a dozen years since, minstrelsy was regarded as a rough and ready type of exhibition containing a lot of fun, some fuss and a show of feathers, the whole constituting a combination of hilarity, frivolity, tomfoolery and immodesty (or more properly speaking indecency) that rendered it fit only for the rabble and riff-raff of society to witness."

"Like other things, however, minstrelsy has grown and improved to such an extent that it is now recognized as quite as legitimate and creditable an exhibition of wit, humor, sentiment, song and pathos as the best character of play we mortals are accustomed to see."

"The 'King of Minstrelsy' is in Austin today, and Austin is glad to have him here. Al G. Field, the mod-

This woman says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved her life. Read her letter.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. For years I suffered with the worst forms of female complaint, continually doctoring and spending lots of money for medicine without help. I wrote you for advice, followed it as directed, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored me to perfect health. Had it not been for you I should have been in my grave to-day. I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulcerations, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration.

Why don't you try it?
Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

ern minstrel, and recognized master and promulgator of modern minstrelsy, is an always welcome visitor to the Capital city of the greatest commonwealth in the American republic.

"Who does not know, or know of, this genial, kindly, sympathetic, whole-souled, generous, philanthropic man of men? He is truly a benefactor to mankind for his benefactions are more than a few."

"Al Field has cast sunshine where the shadow was; with gladness he has supplanted sadness; the pathways that sorrow trod he has lighted with joy; the heart dismayed he has shown the rainbow of hope; to the downcast he has made plain the brighter side of life; the remorseful he has transformed into the mirthful; vices he converts into virtues. Indeed, by their bewitching graciousness Al Field and his jovial, joy-making and noble co-workers have dispelled the gloom that overshadowed the life of many a poor forlorn and dejected creature, and betokened the weary and heavy laden in many a land to the clearer and more appreciable vision of the promising future as well as the not unpromising present."

"They are the exemplars of modern minstrelsy, and he its chief exponent and most accomplished promoter. In their hands minstrelsy is clean, is enlivening, is ennobling, is instructive, is to the human race beneficent."

"Success to the genial and gentlemanly Al Field, and his upright and uplifting cast of minstrelsy. May his pleasure boding shadow never grow less."

"We hope he will have, as he deserves to have, a crowded house in Austin tonight."

POSTOFFICE PREPARES FOR CHRISTMAS TRADE.

Although Christmas is six weeks distant, the postal authorities have begun plans for the handling of an unusually large business during the holidays. Postmaster Frank Fisher has received word asking him to make out the number of extra employees and articles he will need during the rush.

The authorities believe that the recent financial depression will in no way affect the number of gifts sent through the mail. They say business is opening up all over the country, and they expect a larger business than last year. Although extra facilities will be had for the handling of the packages during the holiday season, Postmaster Fisher advises the mailing of parcels early, so that they will reach their destination in time for

COURT-MARTIAL

CONVENES AT FRANKFORT TO-MORROW MORNING.

Will Try Several Officers and Men for Violation of Military Code.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 12.—The first general court-martial which has been convened in Kentucky in many years will be called together here next Friday morning to try several officers and men in the Kentucky State Guard, who are charged with violation of military code. The men composing the tribunal to try the alleged culprits are high in the state guard and were selected by reason of their fitness. The general court-martial can be convened only by the governor. The following officers will compose the court:

Judge Advocate General Lieutenant Colonel James P. Gregory, First Infantry.

Col. W. B. Haldeman, First Infantry.

Major John A. Webb, Second Infantry.

Capt. John H. Terry, Second Infantry.

Capt. Paul P. Price, Third Infantry.

Capt. Neville Bullitt, First Infantry.

Capt. M. L. Chowning, of the Lawrenceburg company, and several members of the Frankfort company, are to be tried before the court on charges growing out of the inspection by Col. W. N. Hughes, the regular army officer who is attached to the adjutant general's office. It is charged that when the Lawrenceburg sent a wagon to Frankfort and borrowed six or seven men from the companies here so as to make a better showing. It is charged that these men were lined up and passed off as members of the Lawrenceburg company. Chowning is also held accountable for considerable government property, but there is no criminal

The Frankfort men will be brought before the court to tell why they allowed themselves to be passed off as members of the Lawrenceburg company. Another man, who is accused of desertion, is also to be tried by the court. It is charged that he left his post, while serving in the campaign against the night riders, and went home. He claims he had permission from his sergeant.

Circus Troupes Pass Through.

Five passenger coaches filled with the circus troupe of Ringling Brothers' show passed through Paducah this morning at 9 o'clock on route from Mississippi to New York, where the performers will disperse for the winter. The show people were glad to get off the train for a few minutes, while engines were changed, before the special train left for Louisville. The fat man, the tall man, the little man, and men of all climes walked the platform for a few minutes' exercise. This is the second troupe to pass through Paducah this fall as the performers went through last week.

The Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 12.—Governor Wilson issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, fixing November 26 as a day for thanks throughout the commonwealth. It is as follows:

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 10.—Thanksgiving proclamation:

By the custom of our fathers and in concord with the Thanksgiving proclamation of the president of the United States of America, and in the name of the commonwealth of Kentucky and all its people, and for each and every soul in this commonwealth, the governor of Kentucky sets the day of prayer and thanksgiving to God on Thursday, November 26, 1908.

No one is so poor nor wretched that he hath not something to thank God for, and no one is so blessed that he doth not need to bow in prayer, and our people in their homes should pray earnestly for relief from woes and wrongs, as they should return earnest thanks for the many blessings granted unto us by Providence.

As partners in the heritage, power and hopes of our whole country, we have great blessings and honors to be thankful for, and as those upon whom God hath showered great bounty of climate, soil, wealth beneath the ground, of noble deeds and great names, of great sacrifices and great gifts, we ought to return fervent thanks, and we ought to give covenant to the Lord to cherish and obey His laws and to keep with each other the covenants of our own laws and customs, to build up this commonwealth rich in the spirit of the Old Kentucky Home, generous, free and unafraid; to welcome its full workers to our state and to win and keep and hold the faithful love, confidence and service of all who are with us now.

Now, therefore, I, Augustus E. Willson, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, have set apart and do hereby fix Thursday, the 26th day of this November, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, and ask that in so far as in us lies, all shall cease from toil and business, and pledge to Him to keep our covenants with our God and each other, of faithful service, of human kindness, earnest work and patient endurance of the tasks of life, that we may deserve a continuation of blessings in the future.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth of Kentucky to be affixed.

GRAND LARCENY

CHARGE HANGING OVER HEAD OF BUTLER FONDEAU.

Young Man Returned to Paducah and Watchful Policemen Nabbed Him in Jiffy.

After slipping back into the city, Butler Fondeau, a young man charged with grand larceny, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Paducah Owen a short time after he had been in the city. He is alleged to have stolen a gold watch from John Fernan, a steamboat pilot, several months ago. Patrolman Owen spotted Fondeau and the patrol wagon was called. Patrolman Barber responded, and he and Patrolman Owen closed in. Fondeau had rabbit in his foot, but the two husky cops nailed him. He was brought to the city hall and was sent to the county jail, as he was unable to make a $300 bond.

PLAN CANAL ACROSS FLORIDA. Association Discusses $50,000,000 Water Way From Atlantic to Gulf.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 12.—The project of cutting the peninsula of Florida in two by an east and west ship canal, connecting the Atlantic ocean and the Gulf of Mexico, was the leading question before the convention of the Gulf Coast Inland Water Ways association, in session here. Senator-elect D. U. Fletcher, of Florida, outlined this plan. He said:

"The problem of the cheapest and safest means of transportation now required by the southern, western and northern growers is solved when the United States gulf ports are opened and the Florida ship canal on the lock system, is constructed. "A canal across the peninsula of Florida would shorten by about 500 miles the route from the Atlantic ocean to the Gulf of Mexico and avoid the dangerous navigation of the gulf stream through the Straits of Florida. "By this canal the commerce of this northern continent will be placed more than a thousand miles nearer the Central American republics. "It is estimated that the canal will cost $50,000,000 and that 60,000,000 tons would pass through the canal annually."

Use DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve—it is healing, cooling and cleansing. It is especially good for piles. Sold by all druggists.

First Sale of Tobacco. Madisonville, Ky., Nov. 12.—The first sale of the 1908 tobacco crop in Hopkins county has just been made public. General Manager Elliott, of the Stemming District association, has sold to a Liverpool company one million pounds of tobacco at good prices. The tobacco was raised in the Hanson country, near Madisonville, and the prices were as follows: $11, $11 and $6; $10, $8 and $5; $9, $9 and $5; $8, $8 and $5, and $7, $7 and $4.

The tobacco is of a good quality. It will be put up at Hanson and shipped from that place. The officers of the association are confident that they will have no trouble in disposing of the entire crop this year at a good price.

Daily Thought.

"Shining will cost something. All light means an expenditure of force."

In some respects Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, is lucky. The Reelfoot lake murder happened just in time to afford him the opportunity on the eve of the election to make a grandstand play and lead the people of the state to forget his brutal neglect of the residents of the Black Patch. Had the murder of Senator Carmack by the political associate of the governor taken place on the eve of the election, the result, perhaps, would have been different.

The first outspoken criticism of the way tobacco is handled came from Lamasco, the very hotbed of the night riders. When 500 men met at Kuttawa and Lamasco and passed resolutions declaring themselves to be free-born, white, American citizens and defying any kind of an organization, you may stake your life on the fact that they have confidence in "Governor Wilson's soldiers" and that the are no longer afraid of the "Danites of the Black Patch."

If those delegates to the American Federation of Labor at Denver did not upbraid each other in the heat of debate with every sort of perversion of spirit and misconstrued motive their tongues could lay hold of on the instant, we would suspect that there was a dictator in control, and the delegates were but puppets. We never knew of an assembly of free citizens, in which all were interested, that the surface wasn't disturbed with storms of passion. If there is any intensity of feeling the place to dissipate it is in debate. Smoldering sentiment eventually consumes.

Farmers of this vicinity should remember the proposed lecture by the expert of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis company, the date for which will be fixed upon in a few days. He will talk about truck farming and the methods of handling the crop for the city market. Practical farmers often entertain contempt for theorists and experts; but a practical railroad man, experienced in marketing truck, can tell the farmers the very thing they do not know, and a thing very essential to know in order to realize profits in the business. Nothing pays better than market gardening properly conducted, and this lecture may result in greatly increasing the wealth of this vicinity, if the farmers give heed to it.

ELIHU ROOT.

Secretary of State Root is in a very embarrassing position. He has to make up his mind to reject either the senatorship from New York or the secretaryship of state. Whichever he chooses, in all probability he will have to resign in a short time to become chief justice of the United States.

Seriously America has produced few men of mental ability greater than Mr. Root. He has no superior at the bar; no citizen has shown greater patriotism than this little man, who lacks those robust qualities of oratory that bring men to the front quickly and as quickly expose them. He sacrificed a law practice to become a law practice. He was winning him an income equal, perhaps, to that of the president of the United States, to undertake the duties of a cabinet position. He introduced the army reforms, and was secretary of war while Mr. Taft was governor general of the Philippines. He inaugurated the South American and Central American policy, which has restored us to favor to the south, and improved the relations of the several governments there.

History will accord Elihu Root a position in the world of diplomacy and statesmanship which his contemporaries cannot understand.

That game of "Night Rider" they play around Clarksville must be as rough as football.

INTERURBAN.

Those Paducah citizens, who have visited cities, which are the centers of interurban traction lines, need no reminder of the value of these lines. If they made any inquiries, both to the cities and to the country through which they pass. An interurban traction line draws trade from a territory six miles around it and converges that trade into the nearest and most accessible city. It draws the members of a community closer together, and gives the rural population the better part of that development, which comes from frequent communication and association together. Coming more frequently to the city, they get better acquainted with the needs of the city population and with the methods of handling their crops to the best advantage. The result is that the country around the city soon produces crops that pay best, handles them in the way to make the most of them, and produces those things, which the city people want.

That means more money in the community, it means higher priced land, and the improved means of communication make more marketable land. All that adds to the importance and value of the city, as much as the improvement of city property does, and inevitably will improve the value of city property. More money in the community necessarily increases the buying capacity of the surrounding population and increases the population, and since the traction lines make the stores more easily accessible to the rural population, they multiply the possible patronage of the stores.

As the city grows in response to the impetus thus given, and more traction lines are built to accommodate the increasing demands, business will keep along with it, and all the other advantages of city life.

These are results that are always manifest, where traction lines are built, and in the eastern and middle western states cities are offering all the inducements they can to traction lines. Such a project has been investigated here, extending through Ballard county to Wickliffe, and the people along the proposed route are greatly interested in it. Thursday night, November 19, residents of Ballard county and the promoters will meet at the city hall with citizens of Paducah to discuss the matter. Several business men, who have been consulted, arranged the meeting in order that all the citizens might be made acquainted with the matter. The Commercial club, the Retail Merchants' association, the Central Labor Union and other organizations have been appealed to put the matter before their members, in order that a representative mass meeting may be secured. It won't cost a cent to attend the meeting and hear what is going on, and that is all that is asked of the people of Paducah.

CURRENT EVENTS.

ELIOT'S RESIGNATION.

The announcement of the resignation of President Eliot after nearly forty years of service at the head of Harvard has been the educational sensation of recent days.

The death of Daniel Coit Gilman a short time ago furnished occasion for notice of the tremendous strides made by university education in the United States since he undertook the work of the first presidency of Johns Hopkins.

The withdrawal of President Eliot carries with it the review of surprising changes made in one institution—and that the oldest in America—under the remarkable administrative skill of an individual even more notable than Dr. Gilman.

Each was a pioneer in his chosen field. Dr. Gilman helped to establish the university idea as it has long been known in Germany and other countries on the continent.

Dr. Eliot took hold of a "university," which consisted of a number of loosely connected schools, and made out of it a "university" with a strong centralized authority behind it.

In that process he had hard fighting. Traditions were powerful in the institution established in 1636—"that the light of learning might not go out or the study of God's word perish."

The president must be a minister of the gospel. The old fashioned curriculum of Greek, Latin, and mathematics was the only one that meant genuine culture.

To select a professor of chemistry for Harvard's president was a startling thing. But that was as nothing compared with the iconoclasm of the introduction of the "elective system" in place of the cherished curriculum of the fathers.

The forty years which have elapsed since the attack upon the ancient fortress have proved the wisdom which found an apt exponent in Charles W. Eliot.

In every progressive institution in the United States the Eliot idea has triumphed. An examination of the curriculum of any college of 1850 in comparison with that of the same college today will show the revolution which has been wrought.

A large share of the credit for the advance in education must always go to the man who now announces his retirement from active work as he approaches the winter of life.

His influence has been tremendous. Year after year he has set forth his ideas in the "Annual Report of the President of Harvard," a volume of several hundred pages which is on every college "president's working desk."

Entire publicity has been the motto. There has been no concealment of weakness where that has appeared. There has been quick recognition of evil where it has threatened.

As a result, there has been an education of the country to look toward Harvard for forward movements. The whole domain of college and secondary instruction has felt the forceful impulse of a master in administration.

The choice of a successor to such a leader will be a difficult task. On the foundations laid deep during President Eliot's long term and with increasing endowments, an aggressive new man ought to be able to go far forward.

But it is doubtful whether any American college president will ever make for himself such a place as is allotted by universal consent to Charles W. Eliot.

Stories Around the Town.

The annual influx of crippled hobos who hibernate each winter in Paducah and make themselves obnoxious on the streets, has begun and the police court officials are at a loss to know what to do with them. Unable to work on the chain gang the best that can be done is send them to jail to be fed and warmed at public expense is all that can be done, and Sir Hobo has no objection to that procedure. When given hours to leave town they do so, if they care to, and if not, they fall back into their usual haunts on Broadway between Third and Fourth streets.

A suit for the possession of a bird dog that promises to equal the famous Harkless calf suit in Ballard county, has been instituted in Magistrate Emery's court. Tony Iseman, of Paducah, and Lee Phelps, of the county, are the litigants. Phelps has possession of the canine and Iseman secured a writ of delivery. Phelps gave a bond of $100 and kept the dog. Both parties claim they will contest the case to the end and carry it to the court of appeals if necessary. The Harkless case referred to was over the possession of a calf, which finally went up to the court of appeals. In the meantime the calf died, but not before the total costs amounted to $750 to each litigant.

At a smoker given the members of the Grace Episcopal church several nights ago a lesson in patriotism was given the members, especially those who had been fond of claiming, old Kentucky as home. After the stories had been exhausted it was suggested that a little singing be indulged in. Soon the air was disturbed with all of the old time songs, and all was serene until somebody suggested that "My Old Kentucky Home" would be appropriate. All agreed, and the first line was sung. A pause and a few worried faces were seen while a few carried the tune as if waiting for some brother to supply the missing words. In a minute Mr. McCallister, the assistant rector, who is a Maine Yankee, was the only one singing. After a hearty laugh the Kentuckians admitted it was on them.

Frank Glisson, who resides on the Hinkleville road, is proudly showing specimens of his second crop of red raspberries, which are just now ripe. He says they are better than the first crop; not so heavy, but remarkable for this season of the year.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight percent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments causes chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

We have a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of its great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. We urge you to try them at our entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect, and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price, 36 tablets, 25c., and 12 tablets, 10c. W. B. McPherson, Druggist, Paducah.

The Nellie, tied up just below the wharfbow, is having new boilers put in. The old boilers were too badly damaged by the collapsing of a flue a week ago to be repaired.

The Ryman line steamboatmen, who are in the city, are looking forward to a sufficient rise in the Cumberland inside the next ten days to start the J. B. Richardson in the Nashville and Paducah packet trade. The rainfall along the upper Cumberland from Burnside to Carthage was from 2 to 3 and 1/2 inches Tuesday night. The Richardson is tied up in the Paducah harbor and will leave for Nashville immediately when the river rises enough, so that she can clear the sand bars.

LORD FACES MURDER CHARGE
Sholto Douglas Shoots Former Officer, Who Will Probably Die.
Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 12.—Lord Sholto Douglas, brother of the present Marquis of Queensberry and son of the eighth marquis, who framed the Queensberry rules under which prize fights are now conducted, is held in the provincial jail at Nelson, B. C., and will probably have to face a murder charge.
Last week Lord Sholto went shooting, and upon his return found his house at Creston, B. C., occupied by an ex-officer of the British army named Rowland. He ordered him to leave, but Rowland would not do so, whereupon Lord Sholto emptied his shotgun at short range into the back of the head and neck of Rowland. He then told neighbors what he had done and the injured man was removed to a hospital, where he is now lying in a precarious condition. Lord Sholto was arrested and sent up for trial on the charge of attempted murder, but, judging from the condition of Rowland, this will be changed to a charge of murder.
A few years ago Lord Sholto was the most talked of young man in England. He gave evidence at the trial of Oscar Wilde, and shortly after his father, the Marquis of Queensberry, met him in Piccadilly, London, and showed him how the Queensberry rules worked out in practice, and the melee ended in the police court.
Only the large hearted are fit to work with the little ones.

LYON FARMERS
RAISE PROTEST

Object to Methods of Planter's
Association.

Hold Mass-Meeting and Introduce
Resolutions Demanding Rights
As White Citizens.

THEY WANT IMMEDIATE SALE.

Eddyville, Ky., Nov. 12.—About 500 farmers of Lyon county met in Kuttawa and Lamasco November 7, and passed a set of resolutions in connection with the Planter's Protective Association, the organization in which they have all pooled their tobacco crops. The meeting was called to protest against the manner in which the pooled tobacco in the association is being handled.

Hugh Lyon, a precinct chairman of the Lyon county branch of the association, was one of the principal figures of the mass-meeting, which was called to consider the advisability of the farmers of Lyon county signing the pooling contract for another three years.

Have Many Complaints.

It is understood that members of the association in several of the adjoining counties will take up the general questions with the hope of agreeing upon a policy that will enable the growers to get their money sooner and with less expense and loss to their crops.

The growers claim that they can arrange to get an average of 9 cents in cash upon delivery of their crops and that is what they are fighting for.

In concluding the resolutions the mass-meeting set forth in strong language the position they would take should the association fail to redress the alleged wrongs and complaints noted. They firmly resolve as "white, free-born citizens never to sign another obligation to the present Planter's Protective Association." The resolutions are as follows:

Petition to Officers.

"Resolved, first, That we respectfully petition President Felix G. Ewing and the executive committee of the Planter's Protective Association of Kentucky Tennessee and Virginia to allow our county chairman and our committee to sell the remainder of our 1937 crop of tobacco for the best price obtainable because we have complied with our obligation to the association by delivering our 1937 crop of tobacco to persons and places named by the association, and when the prizes received our 1937 crop of tobacco our obligation to the association was filled.

"Resolved second, That we find some of the 1937 crop was prized as in a damaged condition, thereby decreasing the value of the tobacco and preventing a sale of same at the established association price.

"Resolved third, That we feel that the association has not dealt with us as we were led to believe it would, because it hasn't sold our tobacco and some of our tobacco was sold at a reduced price.

Causing Dissatisfaction.

"Resolved fourth, That because our tobacco has not been sold is causing much dissatisfaction among our people, for we need the money that is involved in the remainder of our 1937 crop of tobacco to pay our taxes, our rents, our store accounts, doctors' bills, etc., and we feel that we are being imposed upon by not having our tobacco sold or being allowed to sell it ourselves.

"Resolved fifth, That we respectfully petition President Felix G. Ewing may become fine strong men. Some of the strong men of to-day were sickly boys years ago. Many of them received at their mother's knee. This had a power in it that changed them from weak, delicate boys into strong, robust boys.

It has the same power to-day. Boys and girls who are pale and weak get food and energy out of Scott's Emulsion. It makes children grow.

ing and the executive committee of the Planter's Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia to establish a fair and reasonable price on our tobacco in three classes, leaf, lugs and trash, and allow our county chairman and committee to sell our 1938 crop of tobacco loose, and on these terms and conditions.

Places for 1938 Crop.

"That in consideration of a satisfactory bond to the effect that any man or men or company will buy all our 1938 crop at the association price, the county chairman and his committee be allowed to enjoy a grader for each receiving house in the county, and when the farmer delivers his tobacco have his tobacco graded at the receiving house door; pay the grader his fee; pay the storage house stockholders their percentage, pay the grader his percentage, pay the association its 1 per cent commission as soon as the tobacco is weighed, thereby allowing the farmer saving of salesman's charges, saving of insurance, saving of several hands of tobacco that is now used as types, saving of interest on any money that may be advanced to him under present methods; saving of cost of haulage or drayage; allowing him the great advantage of receiving all his money at once and where he delivers his tobacco. Also allowing the buyer the privilege of handling, grading and pricing his tobacco to suit himself.

"Resolved sixth, That we desire to continue our membership in the Planter's Protective Association, and we desire to pay any reasonable commission or the present percentage to maintain the association.

Entitled to Voice.

"Resolved seventh, That we furnish the land, the labor and the money to produce our tobacco, and we feel, as free and intelligent citizens, that we are entitled to a voice in the management of the business of any organization to which we belong.

"Resolved eighth, That we desire to work in harmony with each other and with the Planter's Protective Association for the profits and welfare of all parties concerned.

"Resolved ninth, That the present methods of handling our tobacco by the association is not profitable nor satisfactory to the farmers of Lyon county, and we form and adopt these resolutions because we want to be benefited by them, and do not intend to nor desire to do anything detrimental to the welfare of the association.

"Resolved tenth, That unless these resolutions or other methods are adopted by which the tobacco industry will be more satisfactory and profitable to the Lyon county farmers we firmly resolve, as white, free-born citizens, never to sign another obligation to the present Planter's Protective Association."

Of the 11,000,000 families in France, nearly 2,000,000 are childless.

LABOR CHIEFS TO
ROOSEVELT TABLE

Gompers Omitted From List of Those Invited.

High Officials Will Be Present and President Hopes to Hear
Both Sides.

IMPORTANT QUESTION IS UP

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Roosevelt will entertain at dinner on Nov. 17 a number of labor leaders for the purpose of discussing with them the proposed legislation in distributing the invitations Mr. Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and his secretary, Treasurer John B. Lennon, and Third Vice President James O'Connell are omitted from the list. Barred with them are other members of the organization who supported Mr. Gompers in his fight during the last campaign.

While much emphasis will be given the omission of these names, the president feels that he will be able to secure an accurate statement of the views of labor from the leaders who will be his guests.

Among those who are understood to have been invited to the dinner from labor's list are John Mitchell, formerly president of the mine workers and now a vice-president of the American Federation of Labor; T. V. Powderly, former head of the Knights of Labor and now an official of the Department of Commerce and Labor; F. H. Morrissey of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen; Grand Chief Engineer Stone of the Locomotive Engineers; President Faulkner of the Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America; Secretary Dolan of the International Association of Steam Shovel Men; President Keefe of the Longshoremen's Union; Vice President Duncan of the American Federation of Labor, who is also head of the Granite Cutters' International Association; Attorney Graves of the Central Building Trades' Association of New York, and a number of others.

Important Questions Up.

Announcement has been made at the white house of the names of the government officials and judges who will assemble to discuss labor legislation with the president and these leaders of labor; but the dinner will bring together administration officials, jurists and legislators, so that many important questions will be thoroughly thrashed out.

The president's object in arranging the labor dinner is to obtain at first hand a statement of the legislation which labor suggests to correct existing evils and improve its position, for the purpose of embodying the principal features, or substantially all the demands which are found tenable, in his recommendations to congress.

It is the view of some prominent leaders in congress who have recently been in Washington, that no legislation of importance will be attempted at the coming short session, but that substantially all the time will be devoted to the passage of the regular supply appropriation bills. The president is not giving this view any consideration. He recognizes his responsibility to recommend desirable legislation to congress and will leave it to the house and senate to assume the responsibility of accepting or rejecting the recommendations.

Think All Will Accept.

It is not thought that any of the labor leaders invited to the dinner will decline the invitation on the grounds of policy. The fact that Messrs. Mitchell, Keefe, Morrissey, Faulkner and other leaders have been invited is taken as evidence that Mr. Gompers, by his partisan activity, has alienated many of the representative men of the American Federation from his following.

Some very frank discussion is going to mark the "labor legislation" dinner. In spite of Secretary Loe's official refusal to say that the dinner is to be anything more than a token to the president's regard for a number of prominent labor leaders it is known that the subject of corrective legislation will be thoroughly thrashed out. There will be guests who have little personal sympathy with the objects for which union labor is striving. It is probable that some of the banqueters will be regarded by Keefe, Morrissey et al. as altogether reactionary in sentiment. But the council will go on for all that. The president is eager to get a statement of the views of both sides and the neutrals once more before he finishes his message to congress.

Trust Law to Come Up.

The subject of a government employees liability bill will be gone over thoroughly. The president wants to hear the opinions of his guests concerning the insurance features, which several European governments have incorporated in similar laws. It is anticipated that one of the most interesting debates will follow the introduction of the topic of a revised provision to exempt labor unions from being treated as trusts under the Sherman act. It will be remembered that the famous Danbury hat case was construed by the supreme court last winter to bring labor unions within the scope of the anti-trust law.

It is very evident that the coming dinner is but a preface to a determined campaign which the president will wage during the closing days of his term in favor of the labor legislation which he has continued to urge from congress. One of the most important of these measures will be a bill to limit the scope of injunctions in labor disputes. This recommendation made in the anti-injunction plank adopted by the Chicago convention.

P. H. Morrissey, who was in the city yesterday and left last night for Cleveland, would not discuss the matter. He said he had received the invitation several days ago but did not understand that there was to be any conference. T. J. Doan, another of the invited guests, was not in the city last night. It was said that the convention of the American Federation of Labor in Denver, which remains in session two weeks, would prevent some of the labor men from attending even if invited, and that the circumstances were probably taken into account by the president when he issued the invitations.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION AND EASTERN LEAGUE BOLT.Refused Separate Class and Walked Out of Chicago Gathering in Huff.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Members of the American Association and Eastern league walked out of the meeting of the National Association of Baseball Leagues, after their request to oust the Southern and Western leagues from Class A had been denied, and a request that the American Association and the Eastern league be allowed to withdraw from the national organization had been likewise refused.

The Eastern league and the American Association have held their organizations, in point of population represented, far outrank the Southern and Western league, and that they should not be placed in the class with them and subject to the same draft rules, but should themselves have a right to draft players from these organizations.

For some time it has been predicted that there would be trouble at the Chicago meeting, and the action of the two organizations makes them outlaws to the other National associations clubs.

There is good reason to believe this will be done and everybody is ready for the sale of the new crop.

New Democratic Primary Rules.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Nov. 12.—On Saturday, November 21, committeemen from every precinct in the state of Kentucky will be chosen by the Democratic voters of their respective precincts and a complete reorganization by counties made. At the last Democratic state convention, held in Lexington last June, new rules regarding the election of committeemen were adopted and the elections of next week will be held under these rules, thus giving every voter a voice in the matter. The state central committee, having the good of the party at heart, desire that all shall know the method by which the committeemen must be elected. The rules pertaining to the election are given herewith:

"Precinct Committeemen, How Selected.—In the voting precincts of all counties there shall be elected by the Democratic voters in such precincts a committee of one member, who shall constitute the precinct committeeman of such precinct. In all state, district, legislative or county mass conventions the preceding and election of committeemen shall be null and void if the chairman of said mass convention refuses to give tellers and have a count of the vote of those Democrats present, if said request for tellers is made—and the refusal of said chairman to give tellers and a count, the chairman so refusing shall be removed from his office by the state central committeeman upon proper proof so made to him.

"When Elected or Appointed.—Said precinct committeemen shall be elected on the third Saturday in November, 1908, and shall be residents of their respective precincts. The Democrats of this state shall meet at their various voting precincts at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. and proceed to the election of a committeeman to serve until his successor shall be elected, by order of a succeeding state convention. The retiring precinct committeemen shall call their respective precinct mass meetings to order and shall preside until the mass meeting shall elect a chairman. Where there is a vacancy in the office of precinct committeeman the chairman of the county committee shall designate some qualified Democrat living in the precinct to call said meeting to order and preside until the election of a chairman.

"Meeting, Organization, Removal of Chairman or Secretary.—On the Monday following such election such precinct committeemen shall meet at their respective county seats; in counties having more than one legislative

DEMAND GYM FOR USE OF NUMEROUS TEAMS.

Movement on Foot to Secure Room Where Organizations May Play Their Games.

With practically every lodge organizing a basketball team for winter athletics the need for a central gymnasium is felt keenly. Already several members of the social lodges have begun efforts for the city lodges to unite and secure a suitable hall in which basketball, indoor baseball and indoor meets might be held this winter by the ambitious athletes.

Since the abandonment of the Y. M. C. A. Paducah has had no appropriate place for winter athletes, and as a result the winter sports have been on the drag. Occasionally games have been played in the old gymnasium, but it is not equipped for the sports. The Elks, the Chess, Checker and Whist club, the High school, the S. M. A. and several other teams, including the Knights of Columbus, have organized teams. With a little push and energy it is believed that a central hall may be secured and equipped for the cold weather sports.
